PCVF Installs New Officers For 2000-2002 Term

* 1998-2000 Term Comes To An End *

Another term of the PCVF has come to an end with the installment of the new board in April of 2000. A word of thanks and gratitude goes out to our outgoing president, Betty Vogler Houston. Betty had taken the preverbal "bull by the horns", as the president following the time we lost our founder Charles Vogler, and she fought to continue the work that began many years ago. Betty served two terms and provided continuity and leadership as president going into last years reunion. Betty has guided the PCVF through a reunion, the establishment of the Charles McKinney Vogler Archival Fund, and Swiss Trip II in 1997. Betty has served us all in a way that would make the Vogler family proud!

The new Board consists of a reshuffled deck of present Board members. Rachel Vogler is the new president. John B Houston III is the Vice-President and Jerry Vogler Jr. will remain as Secretary with Mary Frances Zachary serving as Assistant Secretary. Betty V Houston is the Treasurer with the help of outgoing Treasurer JB Houston IV as her Assistant Treasurer. Another word of thanks needs to go to JB Houston for his job as Treasurer these many years. JB has spent hours keeping books, membership ledgers, and providing financial statements for every board meeting. JB truly has keep the financial ship of the PCVF sailing true; thanks again.

The balance of the board will remain as it is today with Frederick Vogler our President Emeritus and faithful trip committee chairman, Jim Vogler PCVF Consultant, Debra Vogler Pendleton will remain as Archivist, and Steve & Cindy Smith will continue to edit the newsletter. The new Board looks forward to the next two years and the hope that more of you will get involved in the activities of the PCVF and help make this term better than the last.

Swiss Trip III Taking Shape For August 2001 !

Please Consider Joining Your Cousins For a Week of Fun and an Experience You Will Never Forget.

Up, Up and Away-Already!

Although still a year away, planning for our Swiss Trip III is now already well underway. With the remarkably successful and enjoyable experiences of the 1992 and the 1997 trip behind us, we are now in the process of setting up the itinerary arrangements for our third "Return of the Swiss Family Vogler," to be based largely on what proved to be the most popular and memorable parts of both earlier tours.

As of now, the following places have been tentatively selected to be included in the trip schedule, either as overnight stays or as significant stops along the way, using the most scenic highway / Alpine mountain pass routes available to us:

Zurich (air arrival / departure, city tour)

Niederhasli / Oberhasli (pilgrimage to Vogler / Fogler ancestral village)

Schaffhausen (visit to Falls of the Rhine River, Europe's biggest)

Berne (Swiss capital, Old City famous Bear Pit, etc.)

Chillon Castle (historic Lake Geneva island fortress near Montreux)

Geneva (Old City, UN European Headquarters, etc.)

Yvoire, France (picturesque medieval walled town on Lake Geneva)

Zermatt (high Alpine mountain resort just north of Matterhorn)

Lugano / Locarno (lakeside resorts in Italian-speaking Ticino canton)

Lake Maggiore, Switzerland / Italy (group boat ride, ferry crossing)

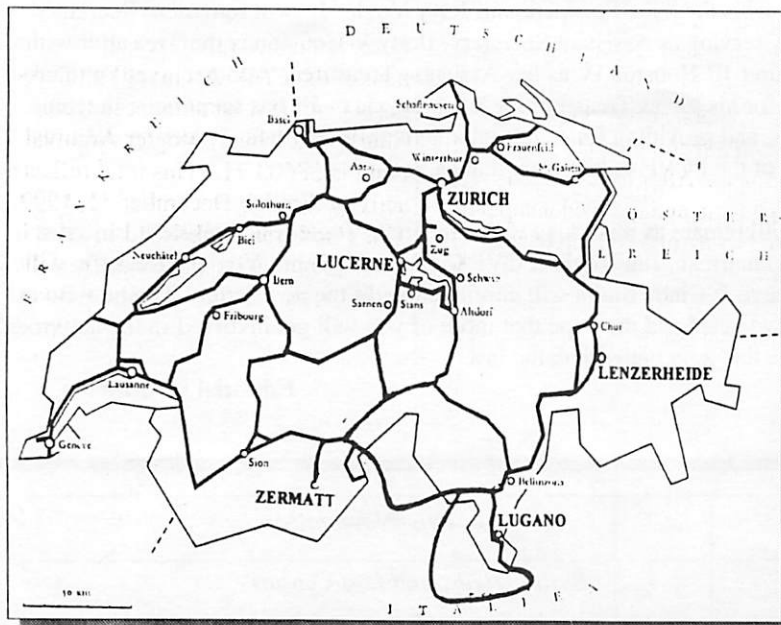

Lucerne (lakeside resort, spectacular Alpine scenery in "William Tell" country)

Interlaken /Grindelwald (Alpine area of nearby Jungfrau, etc.)

Brienz (lakeside resort with national woodworking school / museum)

Vaduz, Liechtenstein (visit to capital and area of nearby Prince's Castle)

Lindau, Germany (famous small island resort in Lake Constance)

Although changes and substitutions may be made in this list before it becomes final, our hope is to provide a wide range of worthwhile, already tested sightseeing that can reasonably be fitted into a 10 day stay in Switzerland, keeping daily bus-riding time to a minimum and also reducing as far as possible long stretches of unavoidable walking for those who would not enjoy it.

If you have any comments, questions, or suggestions about the proposed itinerary, please send them to Frederick W. Vogler either by regular mail to 1010 Dawes St., Chapel Hill, NC 27516 or by e-mail at fwvogler@email.unc.edu and in either case, I will be glad to hear from you.

Gem Hunt 1999- A Great Success For All Who Attended.

By John Houston III - Chairman Gemstone Club

On July 30, 31, and August 1, 1999 members of the Vogler family representing PCVF gathered at the NC Mineral museum located in Spruce Pine, NC to begin a fun filled weekend. After everyone met, enjoyed a tour of the museum and became "instant" experts in identifying gem stones, we were off to try our luck. First stop was one of the more popular mines, "Gem Mountain", where almost everyone purchased a "Bucket", found a reasonably comfortable spot on the wood bench in front of the "sluice", or running water trough, then loaded the screened frame with a shovel full of gem laden dirt and began the search! It didn't take long to uncover several gleaming stones that surfaced after a hefty swishing in the running water. Depending on the type "gem bucket" purchased, lucky miners could find rough rubies, emeralds, sapphires, garnets, amethysts, aquamarines, and a multitude of actual gem stones worth considerably more than the cost of each bucket of dirt. During the search, as gem stones are discovered they are carefully stored in a plastic bag. When finished, the stones can be checked and graded by experts on site. If one wishes, the more valuable stones found can be faceted, or cut, to produce beautiful gems ready for mounting. Those who prefer can browse the gem shop for ready made jewelry. There are a number of mines in the area, all of which offer an equal opportunity to "strike it rich". Some members of the group tried several different mines, but we don't know of anyone who came away a millionaire... After a busy afternoon of gem hunting, several members of the group decided it would be great fun to attend the large gemstone festival show being held at the downtown Spruce Pine Pinebridge Executive Center. This excursion offered access to dozens of gemstone dealers under one roof, and a chance to enjoy welcomed air conditioning!

Browsing through the maze of booths and talking with vendors took up the rest of the afternoon. A few small gemstone purchases and some time later found the group looking for dinner rather than more gemstones. Everyone met at a local "Western Steer" type restaurant for dinner. Afterwards, several gathered at the hotel for conversation, bragging, story telling, reliving the days activities and planning for the following day. On Saturday, the day was almost a carbon copy of the previous afternoon, except the emphasis was more on gem stone hunting. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the day of fun and rock hunting. Again, no millionaires, but a lot of Vogler s who really enjoyed an outing with brothers, sisters, kids, grandkids, etc.. Later that evening the group converged on a recommended local restaurant, already, overcrowded with Saturday night diners. After an extended "wait" in the August heat, we were seated around a large table and enjoyed a super meal served by a most pleasant wait staff who were into "over-time" taking care of our party.

Later that evening, a group gathered at the hotel to enjoy each others company and recap the days events. The next day, Sunday, would be departure day, so those who planned to get an early start said their "good-byes", while some of those hooked on gem stone hunting made plans to meet back at the mine right after breakfast for one last search for "the big one".

In summary, for our first "official" PCVF gem stone weekend outing, it would have to be declared a huge success! All who attended, of which there was an unofficial count totaling 28, made it clear they would be first to sign up for the next one..Perhaps the most enjoyable part of the weekend was an opportunity for family to spend fun time together as a group.

PCVF Web site Online

Thanks again to John Vogler for his time (in between trips around the world) and dedication to the construction of the PCVF web site. The site offers a brief overview of the foundation, as well as a listing of officers, e-mail addresses for board members, and links to other pertinent web sites that fit the objectives of this foundation: education of family history. The site is still in its' infancy and will continue to improve and be an effective tool for those who "surf our way".

The address that you need to bookmark is :

www.unc.edu/~jbvogler/pcvf.htm

The site has already made a splash with family members who have lost touch with the foundation over the years. Do yourself a favor and take a look at the "PCVF Homepage".

Update On Charles M. Vogler Archival Fund

Francis Vogler, organizer and Chairman of the CMV Archival Fund, reports that the total amount in the Charles McKinney Vogler Archival Fund is $8603.71. This total reflects activity through December 31, 1999. This Fund was established in 1998 in order to recognize the founder of the PCVF, Charles Vogler. The fund is a way of keeping Charles' name associated with a cause that he loved and devoted nearly half of his life to; saving family history. Please consider making a gift to this fund, and this gift can be in honor of or in memory of anyone. Take some time to fill out the form on page 7 and mail it to: The Moravian Church, Southern Province to the attention of Mr. Richard Cartner. Thank you again.

This is an activity that is becoming a rarity in this age of cell phones and fast food. If at all possible we will plan another special PCVF gem stone weekend in 2000. There will be advance notice through the newsletter and word of mouth as well as on the web site, so we encourage you to plan now to be in attendance. We are convinced you too, will become "hooked" on the fun hobby of gem stone collecting.

Those who enjoyed the weekend included Peggy and Gary Sutpin, Mansfield, TX., Sparky and Effie Vogler, Mt. Airy, NC, Cindy and Steve Smith and children, Michael, Stephanie, and Katie, Kernersville, NC, Susan and Chuck Huffman and children Lindsay, Chad, and Logan, Gibsonville, NC, Fred and Anita Vogler and children, Dylon and Will, Chris Vogler and friends, all of Mt. Airy, NC, Patsy Paul, Winston-Salem, NC, Gayle and Dennis Riggs, Betty, John, J.B., and Laura Houston, all of Charlotte, NC

Thanks For the Gems

Easter At Old Salem

Join The Family in Winston-Salem

The annual rite of Spring is upon us and again as faithful pilgrims we will meet for Easter Weekend at Old Salem. The history and tradition of sunrise service the way our fore fathers celebrated is a special event that everyone needs to experience. Our family meets for lunch on Saturday and spends the day in the village of Old Salem. Sunrise service at the Home Church at 6:00 am Sunday morning is a sight to behold. Please consider joining us. Below is a rough itinerary for the two days.

Saturday, April 22, 2000:

12:00 noon- Meet at Darryl's Restaurant at the Brookstown Inn adjacent to Old Salem in Winston-Salem, NC. The restaurant does not take reservations so we need to try and be there as early as possible.

2:30- 3:30 pm Love Feast at Home Moravian Church.

All day Sat. Visit shops and homes of restored Village of Old Salem.

Group will decide where to have dinner Saturday night, after dinner return to Darryl's for Buggy Rides or bedtime snack.

Sunday, April 23, 2000

5:45 am Sharp Meet in front of Darryl's to walk to Home Church Sunrise Service. Be prepared for any type of weather. Even though Easter is late this year, temps at that time can be chilly. Service to begin at 6:00am

7:00am Breakfast on our own.

12:30pm

Meet at Hawthorne Inn, 420 High St, for their Easter Buffet. We will need to know how many we will have at least a week before Easter. We will be eating lunch at the 12:30 pm seating. Please call Betty V. Houston at 704-846-2476 to let her know if your family is planning to attend. We do need to know as soon as possible. Cost of the buffet. $14.95 adults $7.95 for children 6 to 12 and children under 5 are free. All of these prices do not include beverage.

Balance of afternoon is unplanned to walk to streets of Old Salem, shop with friends, or spend time with your cousins.

We hope to see some new faces there this year. If you have not experienced a Sunrise Service at Old Salem you owe it to yourself and your family. This is a tradition that has been celebrated for many years by our descendants and is something special we can pass to a new generation. See you all there.

Vogler Family Reunion Slated For 2003 in Winston-Salem, NC

The PCVF is still making plans to hold our fifth family reunion sometime in the summer of 2003. Winston-Salem, NC will be the site of the reunion and the slate of planned activities is not yet complete. The PCVF Board would like you to think of what time or talent you could offer in support of this function. There will be additional information provided in upcoming newsletters.
