Werner Kaag Confirms Information Concerning Philipp Christoph Vogler

Fred Vogler Informs Us Of The Contributions From A New Found Friend Of The Family

Fred's Letter Of Introduction Reveals Fascinating New Proof And Documentation Of Our Swiss Roots
The Board Thanks Werner, Fred, And Edward Cooper For Their Continued Work On Our Behalf

WELCOME FROM PCVF, INC. TO OUR NEW GERMAN FRIEND, WERNER KAAG

It is with great pleasure that we take this opportunity to introduce to our members and other readers a man who, in the six months we have known him, has already proved to be a devoted friend and benefactor for us. Earlier this year, Werner Kaag took it upon himself to undertake research into the family background of our ancestress Anna Catharina Seitz, Philipp Christoph Vogler's first wife and mother of all his children from whom we are descended. The amazing result of his efforts on our behalf has been to trace her Seitz family line back SEVEN generations beginning with hers, after Werner had gone in person to two earlier Seitz family home towns in the state of Wuerttemberg, Germany, to locate the needed records, beginning with her birthplace of Oetisheim, then moving back first to Lorch, then to Goeppingen where her ancestors first lived.

Although the first church-register birth record to be found was for Johannes Seitz, b. 29 June 1562 in Goeppingen, Germany (170 years before Anna Catharina's birth in 1732), that same entry shows the name of his father, Jacob Seitz, whom we can now honor as her great-great-great-great-grandfather and someone from whom our own Vogler line also descends through her. It should be noted that up to now we have only been able to trace Philipp Christoph's family back five generations including his own, his great-great-grandfather having been Jacob ("Jogli") Vogler, presumed to have been born before 1599, date of the start of the Niederhasli church register.

In addition to preparing for us a handsome bound booklet of over 40 pages of photocopied original church records and maps of the areas concerned, he has also sent us two large Seitz and Vogler European family tree charts in color (each approx. 21" x 17") as well as large color reproductions of historical maps showing the location of all the towns our ancestors are known to have lived in before emigrating to North America in 1742. We hope to have all these showpieces on display at our next reunion.

As for Werner Kaag himself, he was born on 30 June 1947 in Pforzheim / Baden, Germany, just to the southeast of Karlsruhe and not far from Philipp Christoph's birthplace of Gondelsheim and Anna Catharina's of Oetisheim, both just to the northeast of Karlsruhe. After secondary school, he undertook university studies in Freiburg / Baden, specializing in history, political science, and geography before undertaking a teaching career at the high school level, currently in Muehlacker, a town which happens to lie just south of Oetisheim itself. While still students in Freiburg, in 1970 Werner and his wife came to the United States on a two-month trip, traveling by Greyhound bus all over the country while visiting American relatives along the way. After their return to Germany, they proceeded to start a family of their own, with two sons born in 1976 and 1982. He and his family now live in Remchingen, located between Pforzheim and Karlsruhe in Baden / Wuerttemberg.

Werner's genealogical interest became active while he was in his late 40s upon acquiring a small but efficient family-tree computer program and undertaking family history research from that point. Two years ago, he began to read the same Internet "Queries" pages used by American family history buffs, leading him to decide to offer his services to some of them in helping locate European ancestors or simply to provide advice as to how they should proceed with their research. However, he has chosen to limit his inquiries on their behalf to his own area of Southwestern Germany and occasionally Switzerland, which is how we have been fortunate to come to know him ourselves through the helpful intermediation of our cousin Edward Cooper of San Antonio, TX, himself a descendant of Philipp Christoph's son George Michael Vogler.

As it happened, Edward Cooper had arranged with Werner to do on-site Vogler research in Gondelsheim and had already received much carefully prepared photocopied documentary information from him before making direct contact with PCVF early this year. Some of those photocopies have turned out to provide clear proof we did not have earlier of Philipp Christoph's actual birth date and of the old spelling (Gundelsheim) of his birthplace, now Gondelsheim.

Upon establishing contact with us and now realizing that the primary benefit of Werner's efforts had been to confirm in even clearer form what our Swiss friend and benefactor Augustin Maissen had already turned up for us there in Gondelsheim in 1980, he not only promptly sent us copies of the substantial documentation he had received but also took the initiative of putting us in touch with Werner, who promptly volunteered to undertake research for us concerning Anna Catharina Seitz's line, something that we had not been able to pursue beyond her parent's generation since her birthplace was finally identified for us in 1992 through the efforts of our cousin Frances Myers of Raleigh.

How very glad we are to have him enter our lives at this time! And we look forward to coming to know him even better in the time ahead.

Fred Vogler
President Emeritus
