Happy Thanksgiving

As we gather together this Holiday Season with family and friends, let us be thankful for all our many blessings. Let us also remember our ancestors that came before us, and what they did for us that we enjoy our lives today. Tell the stories of old, tell the stories of today, and be ready to be part of the stories of tomorrow. For it is in the telling of the stories, we share ourselves with each other and pass traditions and blessings foreword.

and Merry Christmas!

Holiday Season in Old Salem

There are abundant opportunities available during the holidays in Old Salem. Below just a few are highlighted; if interested, more information can be found at www.oldsalem.org/events.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

Gifts are a way we remember people who are important to each one of us.

This year, when planning your gift purchases, don't forget the many items that the PCV Foundation has for donations to the PCVF. Tote bags filled with favorite books or other items, mugs along with favorite coffees or teas, and t-shirts with a favorite pair of jeans or sweater could all be wonderful combinations for under the tree. Use your imagination, give a gift to your loved ones remembering our family heritage. (See insert for available gifts.)

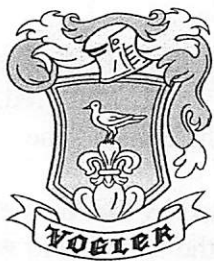

Gift and Memorial Opportunity

Donations to the Charles M. Vogler Archival Fund is a great way to give a gift that will last for future generations. A honorarium or a memorial to the archival fund benefits the programs of the Moravian Archives, the Laurel Ridge Camp, and the Moravian Church of the Southern Province.

Checks should be made out to: Moravian Church of the Southern Province

Please designate that the donation be accredited to the Charles M. Vogler Archival Fund

Vogler Reunion 2008

Time is flying! Soon it will be 2007 and plans are already underway for an unforgettable time in Old-Salem. We want this to be one of our best reunions ever! What great ideas do you have for the reunion? We want the next generation to get involved, send in ideas, help plan, host events, and all in all—have a great time!

Why have a reunion you ask? In this hectic world we live today, it is easy to question why take time to have yet another reunion. Yet if we do this, I think we miss the importance of reunions and family gatherings. Sure we are busy, have our own immediate families and loads of commitments—but we need to remember! We need to embrace the past generations, what they stood for, what they accomplished, and what they wished for future generations. If we do not take time to remember, all will have died in vain. Their lives and stories are our best teachers; much can be learned from our ancestors. What will you leave the next generation?

What is your family story? How does what you learn about your heritage influence your life today? What do you think our founding father, Philip Christoph, would want to do at our family gathering? These and many more questions are for you to contemplate and answer, share with members of the PCVF Board, and help make this a reunion not to forget!

Remember The Foundation Website

The world wide web is newest frontier in the exploits of the PCVF; found at www.voglerfoundation.org The site continues to educate and entertain the masses as our foundation official website. Highlights of foundation events, historical records information, as well as a links page which can offer anyone interested in genealogy a host of options. The foundation store, made up of Vogler related or Vogler produced goods can be viewed in full color. Donations for these items continue to help fund our foundation. Bookmark the foundations website today and return often, as Webmaster John B. Vogler continually adds news as it becomes available.

Profiles of Board Members and Influential Figures in the PCVF

This month we are once again profiling several of our Board Members. We hope that you enjoy these articles, get to know a few more family members and your representatives to our organization. It is with pleasure to introduce the following persons.

Herbert Alexander Vogler, Jr.

Herbert grew up in a house in Old Salem, built by Elias Vogler. He graduated from UNC-Chapel Hill with a degree in Business Administration. He and Frances married in 1953 and moved to Roslyn Rd, Winston-Salem. He is a retired insurance adjuster, having worked for Gay and Tayler and starting his own company Vogler Adjusters, in 1965. He is a past president of the N.C. Adjusters Association and was one of its first members. He is a life long member of Home Moravian Church, where he played trombone in the band for 50 years. He and Frances have 3 children: Bert Vogler, who lives in Huntington Beach with wife Nance and their two children, Alex and Nikolai; Ellen Rogers, who lives on the Vogler farm with husband Buck and their two children, William and Christina; and Christina Riddle and husband Danny who live in Davie County.

Herb and Frances are Board Members of the PCV Foundation. They attended the reunion in Rockport Maine to see where the European Voglers landed in the United States, and went to Europe on the first tour of the PCV to see from whence they came.

Herb served in the 86th Blackhawk Division in Europe and the Philippines in World War II.

Frances Miller Sowers Vogler

Frances is a descendant of Adam Apach and was told by a local historian that she and Herb are 14th cousins through Christina Spach Vogler. She graduated cum laude from Salem College with a Bachelor's degree in Music. She taught piano there until she and Herb were married, when she started teaching at home.

She is a Life Member of the N.C. State Adjustics Association, a life member of the Winston-Salem Regional Association of Realtors, a Bronze Life master of the ACBL Duplicate Bridge Association, a past president of the Winston-Salem Symphony Guild and a sustaining member of the W.S. Junior League. She is the founder and 50th anniversary chairman of the Flower Lore Garden Club.

Frances is the organizer of the Charles McKinney Vogler Fund, which benefits the Moravian Archives, the Laurel Ridge Camp, and the Moravian Church of the Southern Province.

She and Herb have three children and four grandchildren, and live in a house built by her parents when Frances was 8 years old. At one time, four generations lived in this house.

Attention Junior Editors, we need young writers that would like to contribute a story tying our family today with our ancestors of yesterday. Our Foundation is for us especially! We learn from the past as we live and plan for tomorrow. Please forward to Michael Smith @ ssmith901@triad.rr.com.

Births New Little Voglers to Cherish

☼ Elizabeth Katherine Breher born to Alison and Craig Breher of Raleigh on January 13, 2006. Grandparents Robert and Mary Alice Vogler of Winston Salem, NC.

Known Deaths In The Family

✠ Jane Newsome Hayes, 71, of Winston-Salem went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Friday, May 5, 2006, at UNC Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill, with her husband and children by her side. She was unable to survive complications from her third aneurysm surgery. She was born June 15, 1934, in Forsyth County to Charles Augustus Newsome Sr. and Lula Vogler Newsome. Mrs. Hayes was a lifelong member of Waughtown Baptist Church, where she glorified God and inspired all who heard her beautiful soprano voice by singing in the church choir since 1958. She especially loved to bring praises to her Lord by singing solos at the request of many. She also worked with the youth of the church and taught Sunday school for many years. She was always the happiest when she could please her family and loved ones and exemplify the love of Christ in all of her words and actions. She always had a smile to give away, even when dealing with her utmost pain. God now has our precious angel by His side and we know she was welcomed into His heavenly gates with arms open wide. Her love was shown to others through her sweet spirit, and her kindness touched more hearts than we will know. She is survived by her husband of 51 years, Ralph G. Hayes; a son, Gregory R. Hayes and wife Kim of Hickory; a daughter, Pamela H. Maynard and husband Bruce of Winston-Salem; three grandchildren, Kristen Maynard, Benjamin Hayes and Katherine Hayes; two nephews, Michael Johnson and Gary Webster; four nieces, Barbara Miller, Lori Morris, Susan Mecum and Amy Newsome; a sister-in-law, Lucinda Newsome; and many nieces and nephews from the Hayes family. Funeral services will be conducted at 3 p.m. Monday, May 8, at Waughtown Baptist Church with the Rev. Joe McWethy and Dr. Donald Farrow officiating.

Burial will follow in Oaklawn Memorial Park. The family will receive friends from 7 to 9 p.m. today, May 7, at Hayworth-Miller Silas Creek Chapel. Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for a while and leave footprints on our hearts and we are never, ever the same.

Want to receive your newsletter by e-mail?

Now you can sign up to receive your PCV Foundation newsletter by e-mail. Dues still remain $10(US) per year/per family. Get on board with the next generation newsletter by contacting Debbie Pendleton at dvpnd@alltel.net. What a great way to keep in touch fast!

Marriages

Jason Christopher
Wood and Julie

Elizabeth Baker were married on October 1, 2006 at Mountain Lake Hotel at Mountain Lake, VA. Jason is the son of Lynda Shelton Terry of Sacramento, CA, Bobby Dale Wood (deceased) of Modesto, CA and stepson of Daniel A. Terry of Sacramento, CA. Julie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Baker, Jr. of Richmond VA. Jason is the grandson of Jacqueline Vogler Shelton and the late J.Q. Shelton, Jr. of Mount Airy, NC. They are making their home in Cana, VA.

We continue to ask for information concerning family members. This is the only way we can get the news that others would like to hear. In the early days of the newsletter, there were pictures, articles about kids, parents, and special events that we all could share. We need to hear from you concerning family happenings; Births, Weddings, Deaths, or any special events that you feel like sharing with your Vogler extended family.

E-mail me pictures or stories that you would like to see appear in future publications. I will do my best to include all items space permitting. This is your newsletter, our own family way of keeping each other informed.
